

An aerial photograph of a fishing boat, likely a yellowtail kingfish boat, sailing on a vibrant turquoise sea. The boat is white with blue accents and is leaving a white wake behind it. The water's surface is covered in small, shimmering ripples.

New in our assortment is the yellowtail kingfish from Japan. This ray-fined predator fish, which can reach almost 2 meters in length, is found in the wild in the warm waters of the Pacific.